Runaway or Homeless Youth

- ☐ If you learn that the youth in your facility does not have parental permission to be there, you must:
 - Within 72 hours, notify the parent (unless compelling reasons exist) and provide them with the youth's whereabouts, description of the youth's condition and how the youth came to be in contact with your facility.
 - If compelling reasons exist, notify CA intake.
 - Review the public information on missing youth made available by WSP at least once every 8 hours while the youth is at your facility. If the youth is listed as missing you must immediately notify CA intake.

Child Missing from Care reports

- ☐ Notify child's worker right away, if the worker is unavailable or it is after business hours, contact CA intake.
- ☐ Contact law enforcement within six hours. Ask for the missing person report number and provide to child's worker. You must contact law enforcement immediately if:
 - Child is believed to be taken, lured from placement or has left placement and you believe child is at risk of physical or sexual assault or exploitation.
 - Child is age 13 or younger.
 - Child has physical, mental or emotional conditions that if not treated will place child at severe risk.
 - Child is parenting or pregnant.
 - Child has an intellectual and developmental disability that impairs child's ability to care for self.
 - Child has a serious alcohol or substance abuse problem.
 - Child is at risk due to other circumstances.
- ☐ After contacting law enforcement, contact the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children at 1-800-843-5678.
- ☐ If you learn of child's whereabouts or child returns to your home, report to child's worker.
